Stockman Adam O'Rourke is equally determined she's going home ASAP. This girl is not the jillaroo he was expecting to help on his station over the summer. She can't even handle a horse.

It isn't long before Ivy realises there's more between her and Adam than the job. But Ivy has only one summer on Capricorn Station. One season that's passing way too fast.

And when Adam's past blows in unexpectedly, Ivy realises too late that falling for him is bringing back everything she is running from.

D. J. Blackmore has milked cows and made cheese. She's bartered house-made Gouda for wine at a boutique vineyard near her home in the Hunter Valley, New South Wales.

She has collected eggs barefoot from the hen-house. A short stint with horses saw her falling off, concussing herself in the process. She broke her best arm. Now the author prefers to stir adrenaline with her pen rather than horsepower.

D.J. Blackmore is the author of Central to Nowhere to be released by Rhiza Connect later in 2019, as well as Charter to Redemption, a title published by Even Before Publishing.
